IN MEMORIAM
RONALD FRANKEL
CLASS OF 1959

He was a good student. He was a Thespian. He won first prize in the Roosevelt Centennial Speech Contest of 1959. He was a high-minded young man of rare integrity, a credit to Cristobal High School. He was to many of us a friend. But most of all, Ronnie was a gentleman — a warm, sensitive human being who spoke nothing but good of his fellow man. He held our love and respect, and we are better for having known him.

THE BIGGEST TIGER BOOSTER OF THEM ALL

For all the service given us in the past, and for the support he gives us now, the 1960 CARIBBEAN is fondly dedicated to Mr. Luke C. Palumbo.

Class History

It seems that only yesterday the Class of 1960 began its long climb to the top. Defeated, but undaunted, it lost the Freshman-Sophomore Brawl on September 9, 1956. The first class officers it elected were these: Darce Hause, President; Frank McLeod, Vice-President; and Darien Dietz, Secretary-Treasurer. Along with Mr. Karl Shirley, the class sponsor, the Class of "60" produced its first dance, the "Spring Swing," and its first assembly, a variety show.

As Sophomores, the Class of 1960 started off on the right foot by winning the Brawl against a larger freshman team. Darce Hause led the class as President once more, with Mel Field acting as Vice-President and Judy Butler as Secretary-Treasurer. The class sponsor was a new-comer to CHS, Mr. Lyle Roush. After presenting a rather unusual assembly, the Class of 1960 held a very successful dance labeled the "Sputnik Spin."

As Juniors, under the leadership of Mrs. Anne Gegg, the Class of '60 elected Bob Irwin Class President. Bob held this honor along with Darce Hause—Vice-President, Emily Hearn—Secretary, and Frank McLeod—Treasurer. The 1960 Class Rings arrived in December, 1958, and, after presenting an informative assembly on Panamanian Independence Day, the Juniors produced the Junior and Senior Prom and Banquet, giving the seniors a fine send-off. The dance and Banquet was based on the theme "Sayonara," which means Good-bye.

On September 1, 1959, the goal for the Class of 1960 was reached. They were Seniors! Jim McGloin led the class through its final year with the aid of his fellow officers: Bob Irwin, Vice-President; Darce Hause, Secretary; and Ruby Hall, Treasurer. With the aid of Mrs. Smith, the senior class sponsor, the lovely "Snowflake Frolic" was produced.

The Class of 1960 had its leaders in every activity in CHS. Members of the Class of '60 will surely continue to exercise and extend their influence in the years to come.

The Last Will and Testament

Ramona Anderson leaves her place in the Glee Club to Betty Limkemann.

Rafael Arosemena leaves his pile of rocks to Leo Sanchez.

LeRoy Barfield leaves his problems to anyone who doesn't have any.

Maurice Belanger leaves his crew-cut to Lennart Hakanson.

Manfred Blakely leaves his place at the "O" to Mike Rudge.

Donnie Bruce leaves Mrs. Smith to all the underclassmen.

Dean Campbell leaves his traffic tickets to anyone who can afford them.

Ellen Clute leaves her brains? in math to her sister, Janet.

Brenda Daisey leaves her brother, Rex, to Ginny Roscoe.

Rex Daisey leaves Coach Moser to the Gamboa Golf Club.

Jules Damiani leaves the honor of being a Senior to Bobby Geddes.

Jean Dockery leaves her locker for someone else's use next year.

Ed Donohue leaves his shoes to anyone who can fill them.

Peter Ender leaves his car, but not the keys, to Pierre Leignadier.

Carlos Fernandez leaves all he didn't study for Leo Sanchez to learn.

Melvyn Field leaves his math ability to his brother.

Judy Gray leaves her horse and buggy parking places to Bernice Hill and "George" to Mrs. Fattorosi.

Ruby Hall leaves her place on the Honor Roll to her sister, Barbara.

Darce Hause leaves her "tank" to Babe Marquard when he gets his license so he can chauffeur the gang next year.

Emily Hearn leaves her "outstanding?" athletic ability to whoever thinks she deserves it.

Butch Hilty leaves slowly but surely.

Ruth Himes leaves her ability to write sonnets to any up-and-coming Shakespeare.

Dodd Jones leaves his "Buggy," (with a full tank of gas) to the boys.

Reba Jones leaves her laboratory equipment to any chemistry student needing them.

Corky Karpinski leaves all of his troubles in Physics to George Cotton.

Francisco Katz leaves his nickname, "Boodro," to any unfortunate person who gets it.

Paul Kunkel leaves his High School career to next year's freshmen.

Marion Leach leaves her ability to talk for hours to any talkative junior.

Paul Leignadier leaves his official license plate but not his Mercedes to George Cotton.

Leila Leon leaves her aspirins to "Headache" Slowick for future use in English 12.

Shirley Littleton leaves her advice to any CHS student to have a ball.

Charles Lyew leaves a pile of work to all the lazy, teacher hard-time-givers, but his best wishes to the industrious members of the student body.

Frank McLeod leaves Mr Pfau's storeroom to anybody with the intestinal fortitude to blow it up.

Irene Meehan leaves the whole school, lock, stock, and barrel, to her poor, unsuspecting sister.

Robin Morland leaves astonishingly, and doesn't know how.

Brenda Murray leaves her title of Captain of the Basketball team to Carol Seaman, so that she may beat JC next year.

Jim McGloin leaves "Shorty" and/or "Ohio" to next year's Juniors and Seniors.

Andy Nash leaves her curly hair to anyone brave enough to try controlling it.

Jimmy Palumbo leaves his centering position to Alex Stearns with all the bruises that go with it.

Doris Payne leaves her job at the theater to anyone who wants it.

Dee Pearce leaves all the happiness of her Senior year to Louise Allgaier.

Lee Peck leaves all the fun she's had in CHS to any lucky freshman.

John Peterson leaves his bike to the person who can buy it.

Doug Phillips leaves all the tarpon in the Charges he has staked out to Lennie Wertz.

Ginny Roscoe leaves her place in the Homecoming Court to her sisters, Diane and Sue.

Jack Sanders leaves his old tire marks to CHS.

Diana Smith leaves her knee guard to anyone on the Basketball team who can wear it.

Marion Smith leaves her fighting spirit to her sister, Lonnie.

Sarah Spector leaves her ability to get in trouble in Study Hall to Tita Clarke.

Danny Stanley leaves it all to Mike LaCroix and Ernie Stiebritz.

Mike Stephenson leaves with the wind.

Hugo Tompkins leaves his "Primadonna" slot to Gary Irving.

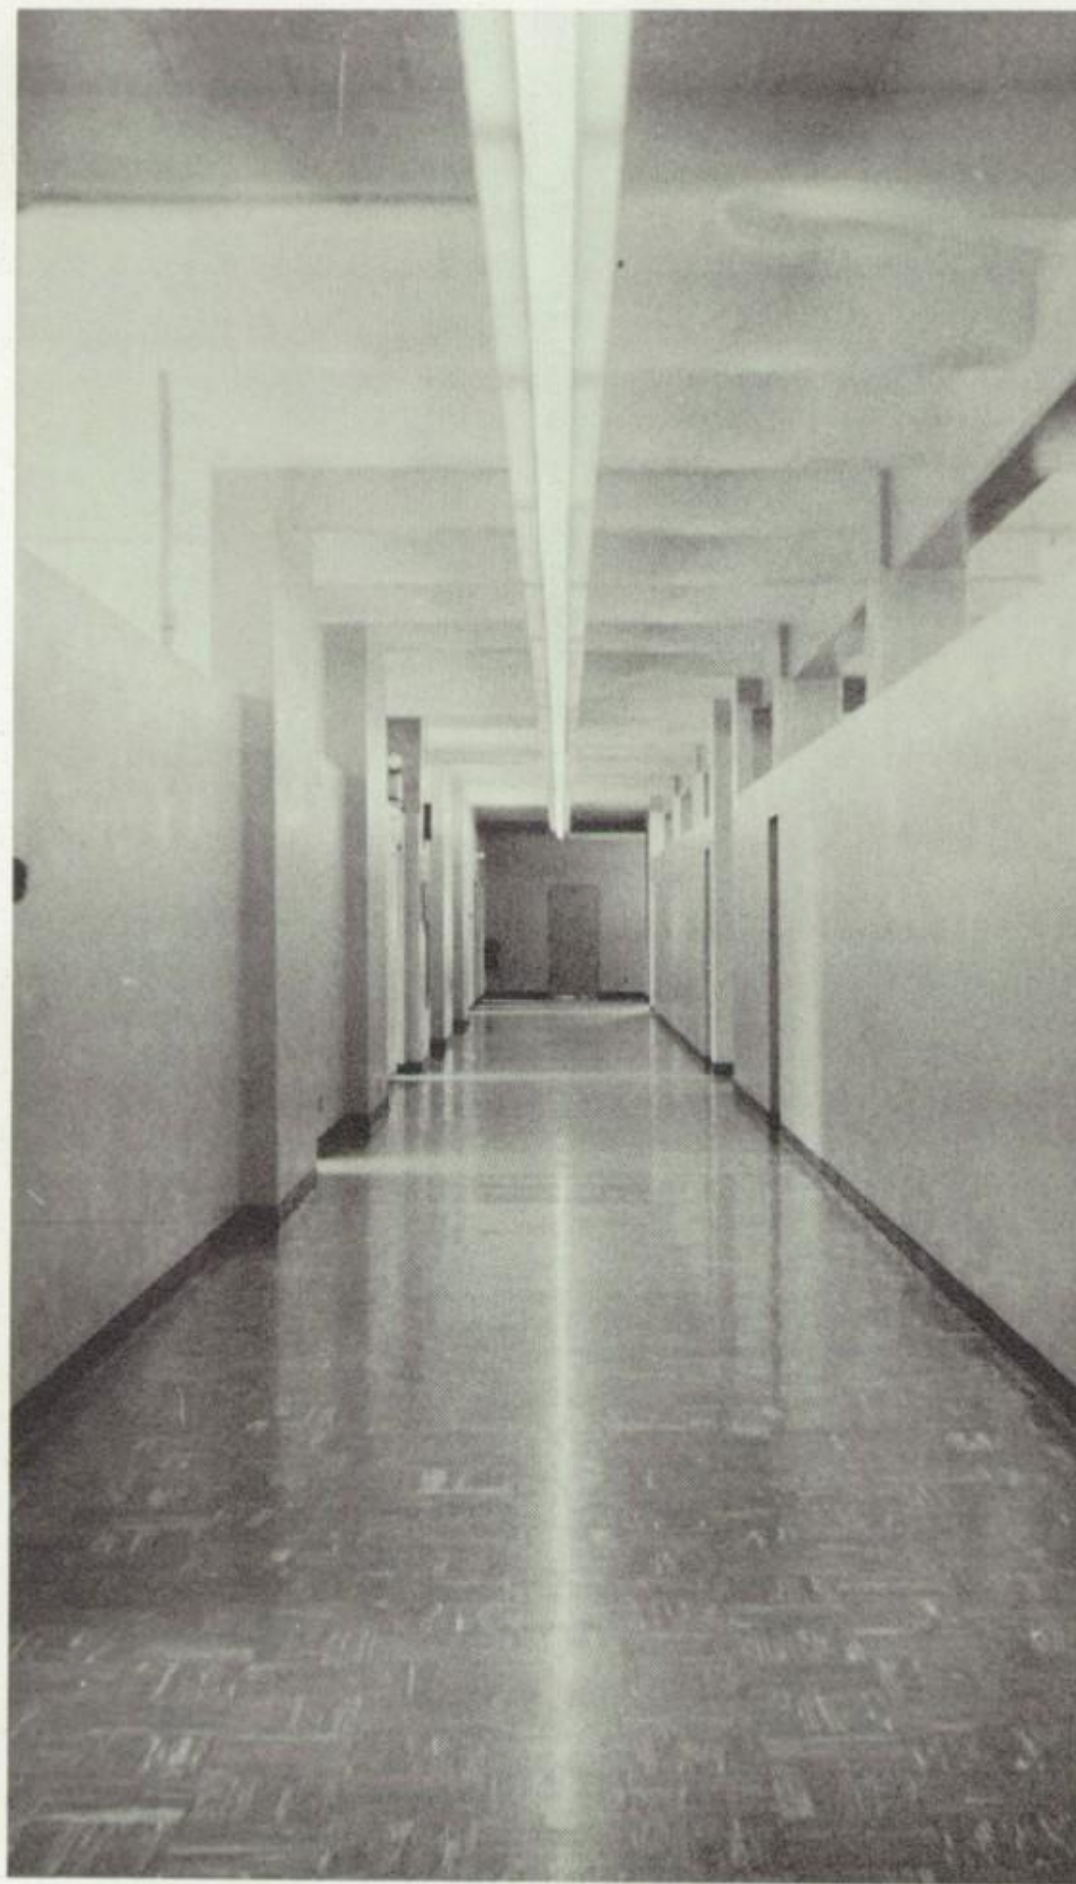

Joe Valdez leaves locker number 334 to the next individual on whom it may fall.

Bill Weigle leaves his motor-cycle to Sharon McElhone.

Jim Will leaves all the lunches he would have eaten to Charlotte Bialkowski and Patsy Lee.

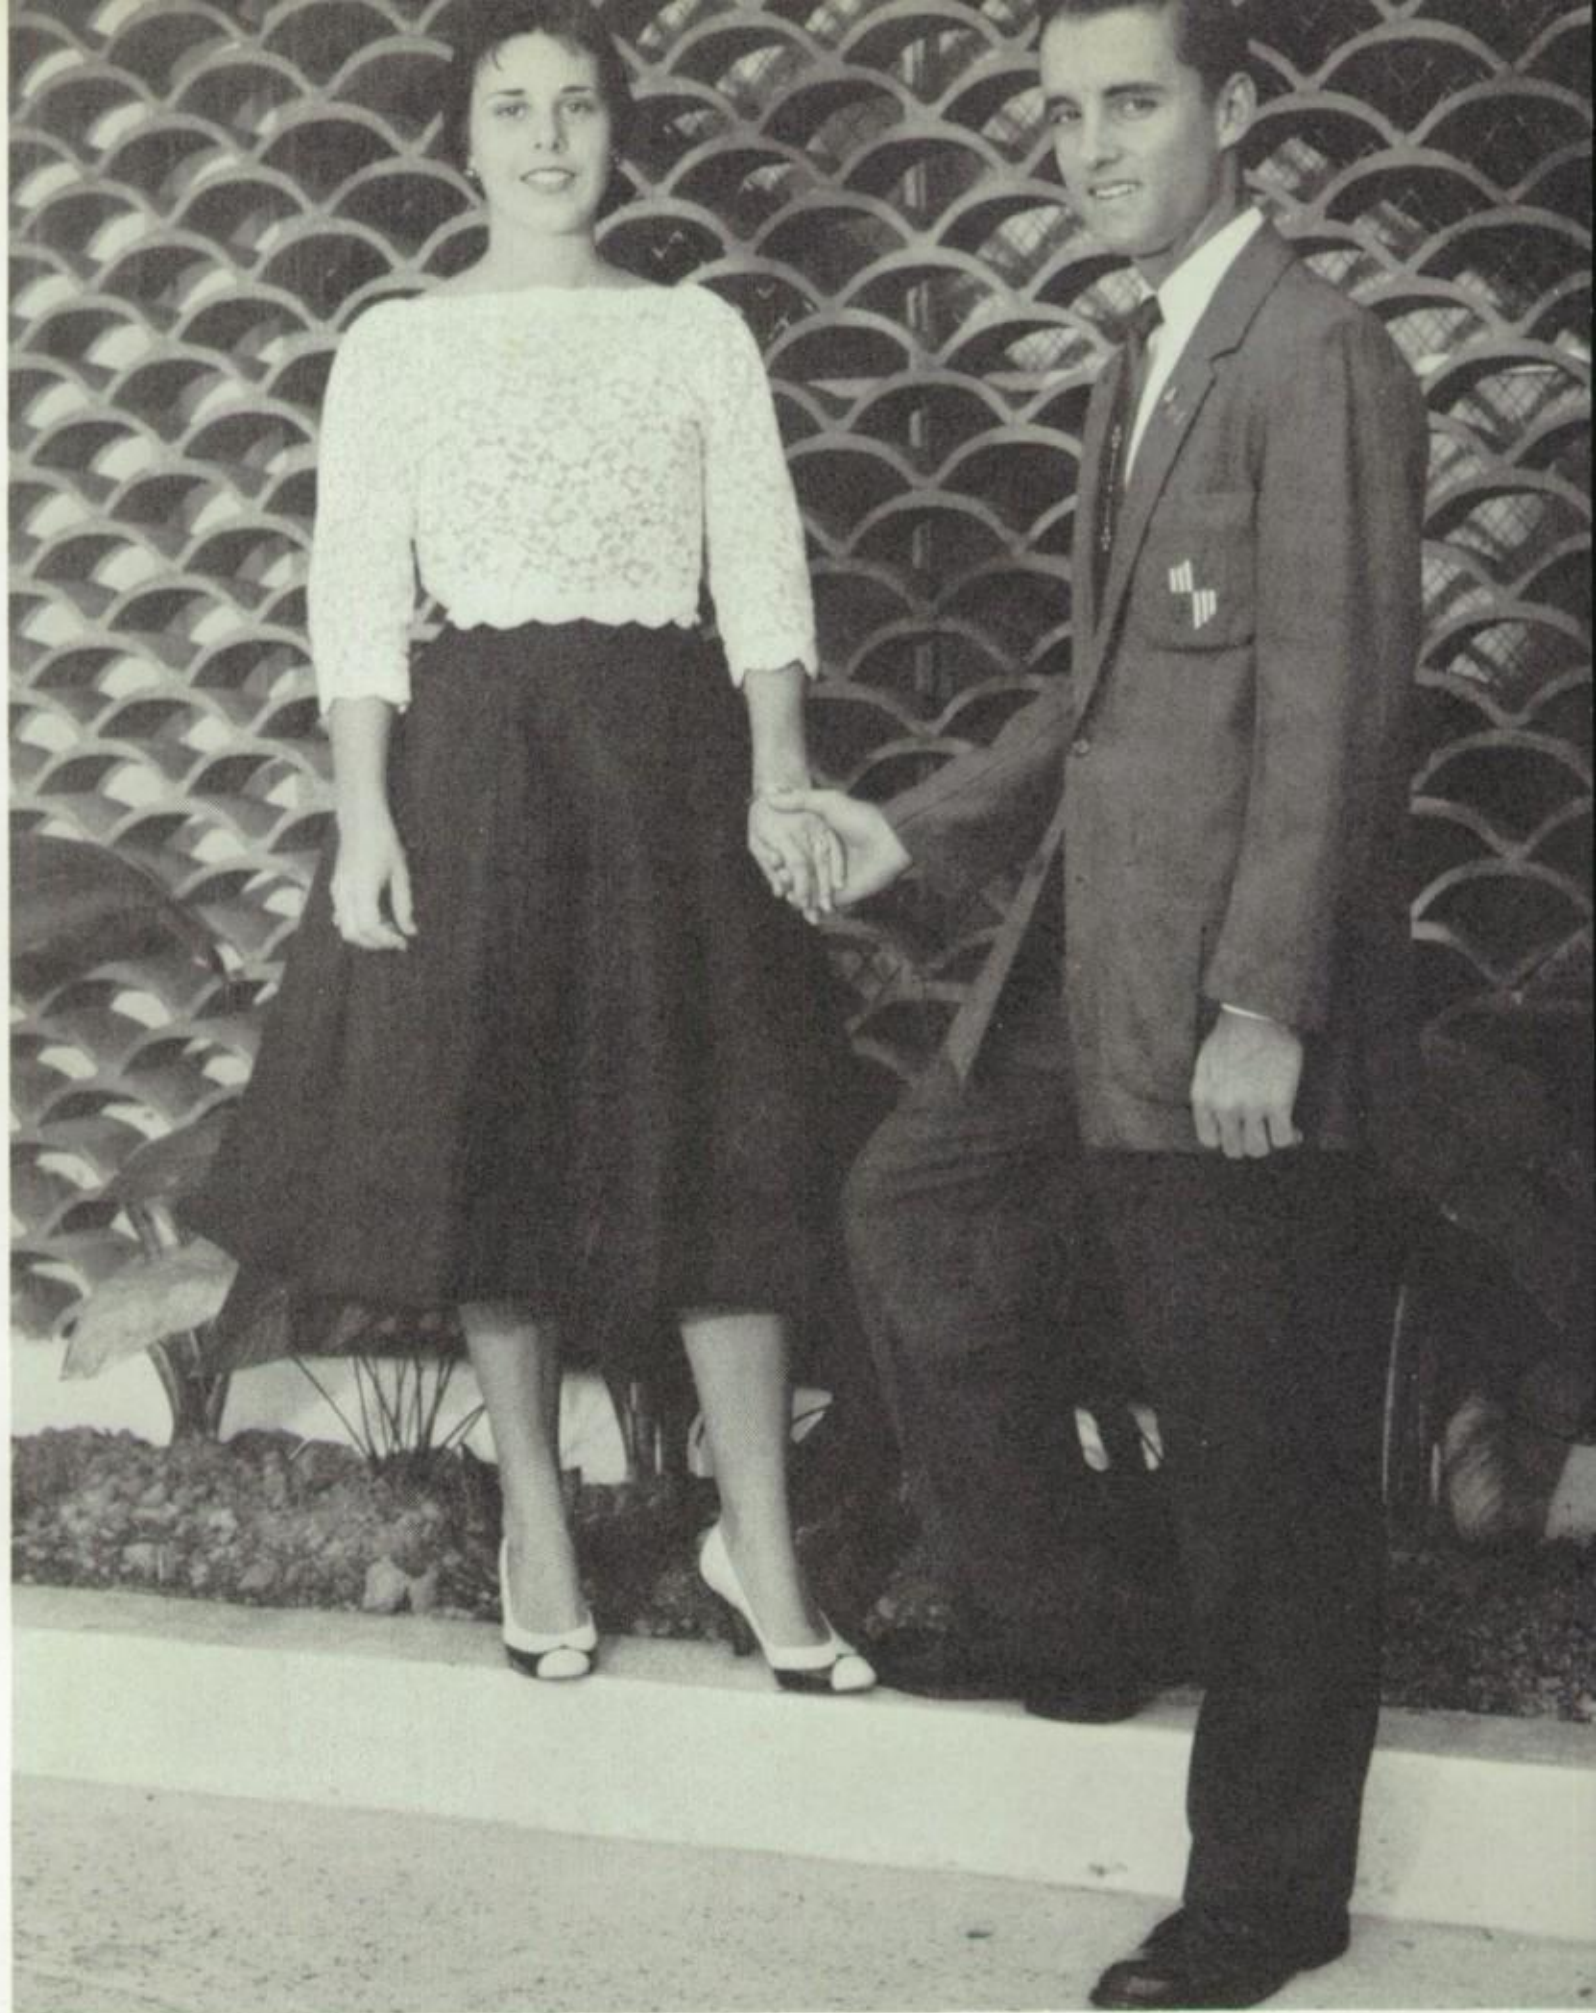

Bill Will leaves his grouchy moods to Kathy Lewis.

Ada Wynne leaves her ability to flirt to her brothers and her place in the Homecoming Court to Ginny Lynn.

Class Prophecy

As we take a quick glance into the future, we find the graduates of the class of 1960 scattered throughout the western hemisphere and employed in various occupations.

Treading in the sea of matrimony are three of our own lovely girls: Emily Hearn is married to a Texas millionaire, Irene Meehan has wedded a Bulted Midgeaire, and Sandra Roscoe is married to Rex Daisey.

On the local scene, we find Rex Daisey completing his Canal Zone electrical apprenticeship, Paul Leignadier taking the Panamanian Presidential Election by a landslide, and Bill Will as the business manager of the Colon Garbage Collection Agency. Bill's secretary is Joan Page. Marion Smith is completing her college training to replace Mrs. Smith in English 12. At Coco Solo Hospital we find the situation confused, with Doris Payne and Jean Dockery as nurses, and Ellen Clute as a physical therapist. Reba Jones has just finished college and plans to replace Mr. Pfau when he retires as a science teacher. Michael McBride is writing comics for the PANAMA AMERICAN. Robin Morland has a job with the Grace Line shipping agency. Andy Nash is the United States Consul to Panama. Paul Kunkel is an admiral in the Panamanian Navy. His duties consist of bailing out a cayuco. Francisco Katz is the new chemist at the Balboa Brewery.

As the scene shifts to the United States, we find a host of engineers from our alma mater. The engineers responsible for the electrical mishaps throughout the country are Danny Stanley, Hugo Tompkins, Felix Karpinski, and Peter Ender. Our mechanical engineers are Mel Field and John Peterson. Jim Will and Deane Campbell are aeronautical engineers, and Gerald Hilty is an architectural engineer.

Ziping through the skies in a jet plane is our rugged speedster, LeRoy Barfield. Also in the sky, but watching out for the jet pilot, is John Marshall, flying a passenger plane; Leila Leon is his stewardess.

Switching to the entertainment world, we find the world renowned pianist, Ramona Anderson, accompanying Judy Gray and her dancing horse in Carnegie Hall. Darce Hause, an interior decorator, is changing the interior of every theater on Broadway.

Ruby Hall is a successful stenographer in New York and Diana Smith is a secretary in the same office. Sherley Littleton is teaching handicapped children. Brenda Daisey and Sarah Spector are also secretaries.

In the various research plants throughout the country, we find Maurice Belanger, Jim McGloin, and Frank McLeod in the role of mad scientists. Ed Donahue is galavanting around the country-side capturing funny little animals for his biological research. Serving science in another way is Doug Phillips, who plans to be the first man to reach the moon. Good luck, Doug! Don Bruce plans to go to college—but for how long? (It would be great to be a professional student).

Among the more unusual occupations is Manford Blakely's: he plans to be an educated bum. Jules Damiani plans to be a race-car driver. Bob Erwin plans to be a success and give his second million to Jim Will. Bill Weigle has become a motorcycle enthusiast. Ruth Himes is still in college. Joe Valdez is in the Air Force. Charles Lyew is a professor of music in the University of Panama. Dodd Jones has just become the new Commander of the French Navy. Jack Sanders and Marion Leach are running a garage in New York. Marion handles the dirty work. Dimity Pearce, Carolyn Peck, and Brenda Murray are guiding tourists up Mount Everest. Mike Stephenson is president of the National Newspaper-boy Syndicate. Ada Wynne is a homemaker.

Carlos Fernandez is Spain's greatest bullfighter and is learning the art of hypnotizing bulls!

National Honor Society

The highest honor that Cristobal High School can bestow upon a student is election to membership in the Caribbean Chapter of the National Honor Society. Qualifications for membership are character, leadership, scholarship, and service.

James McGloin, Emily Hearn—Secretary, Miss Adamary Anderson—Sponsor, Frank McLeod—President, and Maurice Belanger—Vice President.

"21" Club

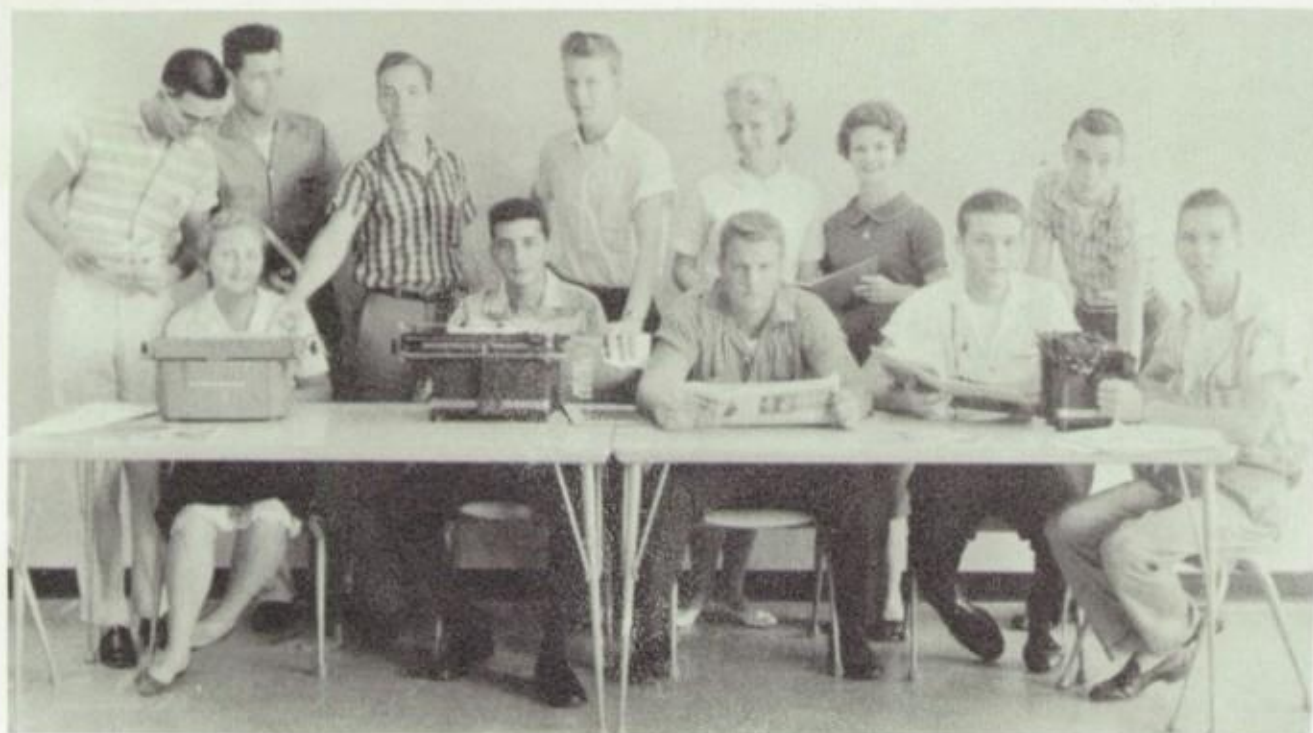

The "21" Club is composed of twenty-one boys, each of whom represents one of the Pan-American Republics. Each member writes an essay about the country he represents and the Cristobal-Colon Rotary Club awards prizes for the best essays.

The club stimulates and promotes interest in the Pan-American republic and encourages a better understanding of those countries.

Homecoming Coronation

"QUEEN DARCE 1

Queen Darce I, Owner of the Flowers, Daughter of the Jewel, Lady of the Night and Ruler of Cristobal High School, being crowned by co-captain Pete Ender, Knight of the Blue and Gold, and runner of the fumble. This event took place on November 9, 1959.

Homecoming

QUEEN DARCE AND HER COURT

On Saturday, November 9, 1959, the Breakers Club was the scene of the annual Cristobal High School Homecoming Dance. The ballroom was decorated by the Girls Athletic Association and Chi Theta Sigma. The background for the queen's throne was formed by panels of yellow with "QUEEN DARCE" and the year "1959" in blue. Yellow alamander blossoms outlined the platform, and the orchestra stand was outlined with double rows of exoria.

Jim Will, President of the Student Association, announced the entrance of the queen and her court in the following order:

Princess Virginia Roscoe, Princess of the Daisies, Daughter of the Morning Mist, wearing a floor-length gown of French blue net with an overskirt of light blue lace net. She was escorted by Paul Leignadier, Knight of the Golden Armor, Chief of the Leftouts, and Master of the Way-Back.

Princess Ada Wayne, Princess of the Orchid, Daughter of the Noon-day sun, and Keeper of the Aquamarines, wearing a bouffant nylon, deep aquamarine gown. She was escorted by Co-Captain James Palumbo, Lord of the Red and White Peasants, Chief of the Cleaners of Uniforms, and Defender of the Line.

Princess Andra Lee Nash, Princess of the Lilies, Keeper of the Emerald, and Daughter of the Evening, wearing a silver and ice-blue satin gown. Her escort was James McGloin, Chief of the Single Wing and Master of the Bucketheads.

Princess Ruth Anne Himes, Princess of the Roses, Daughter of the Sunrise, wearing a mist-blue gown of embroidered pure silk. Donald Bruce was her escort, Killer of the Defense and Master of the Tackle.

The flower girl was Lady Tessie Corrigan, Keeper of the Dewdrops, Daughter of the Moon, wearing a tiered dress of white net. Her escort was Squire Gary Will, Prince of the Football Team and Keeper of the Queen's Crown. Squire Will carried the crown on a white satin pillow.

Queen Darce I, Owner of the Flowers, Daughter of the Jewel, Lady of the Night and Ruler of Cristobal High School. She wore a gown of ruffled, yellow nylon, with a bodice and overskirt of yellow and white embroidered nylon. Co-Captain Peter Ender, Knight of the Blue and Gold, and Runner of the Fumble was her escort.

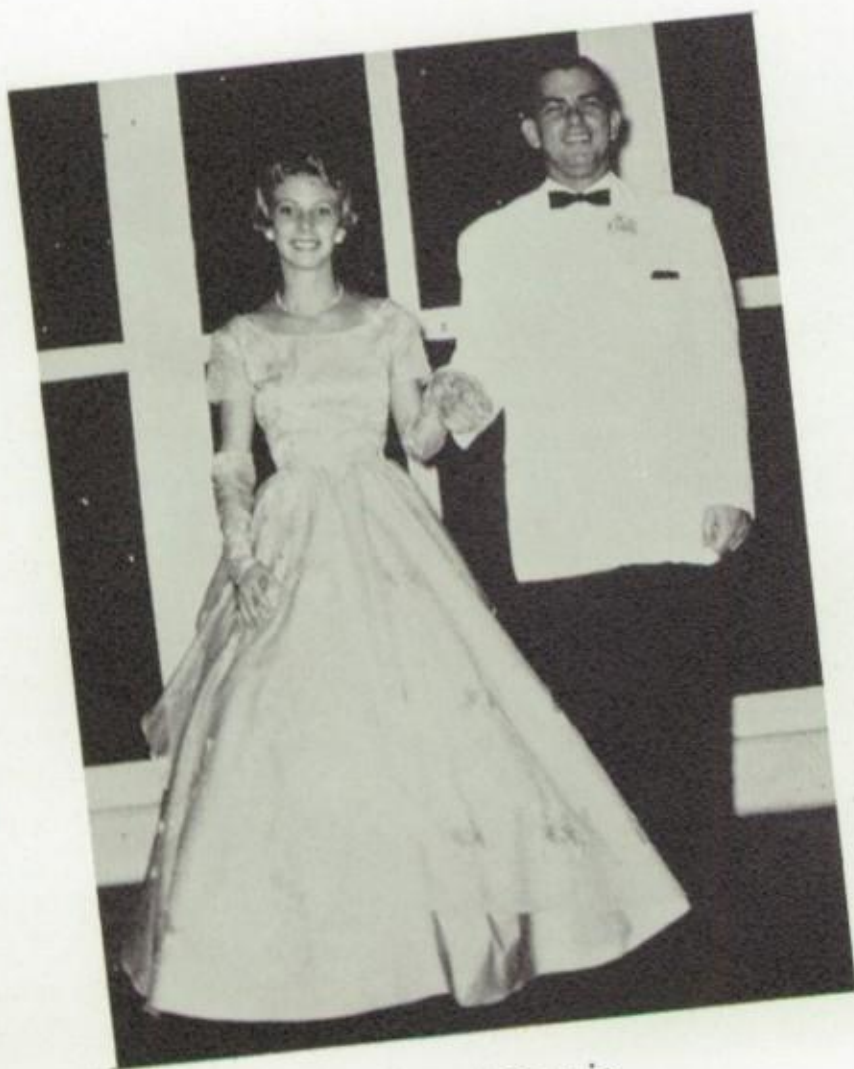

After the procession, Captain Ender crowned Queen Darce with a handsome rhinestone crown, the gift of the senior class to Cristobal High School.

The attendants carried nosegay bouquets of blue hydrangeas and yellow carnations tied with matching ribbons. Queen Darce carried an arm-bouquet of the same flowers and the escorts wore boutonnieres of matching flowers.

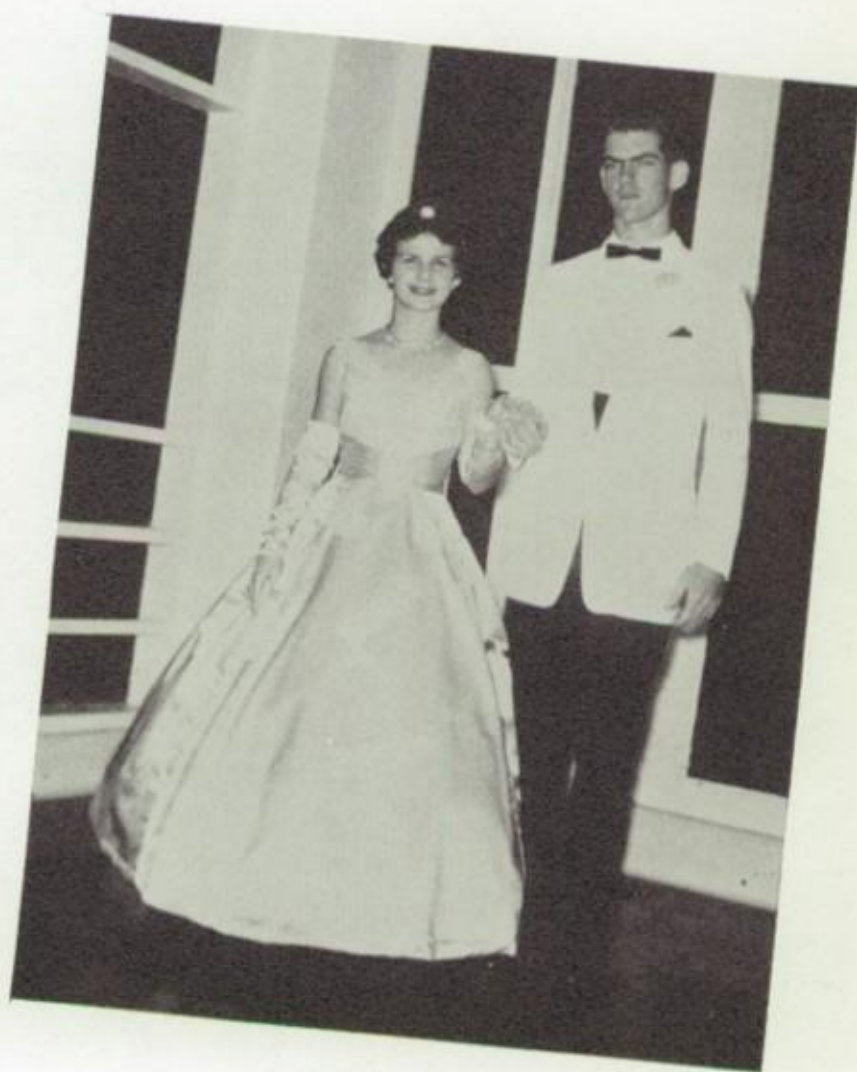

Music for the evening was furnished by Trym's orchestra and a large group of students enjoyed the festive occasion.

Most Valuable Football Player

1959

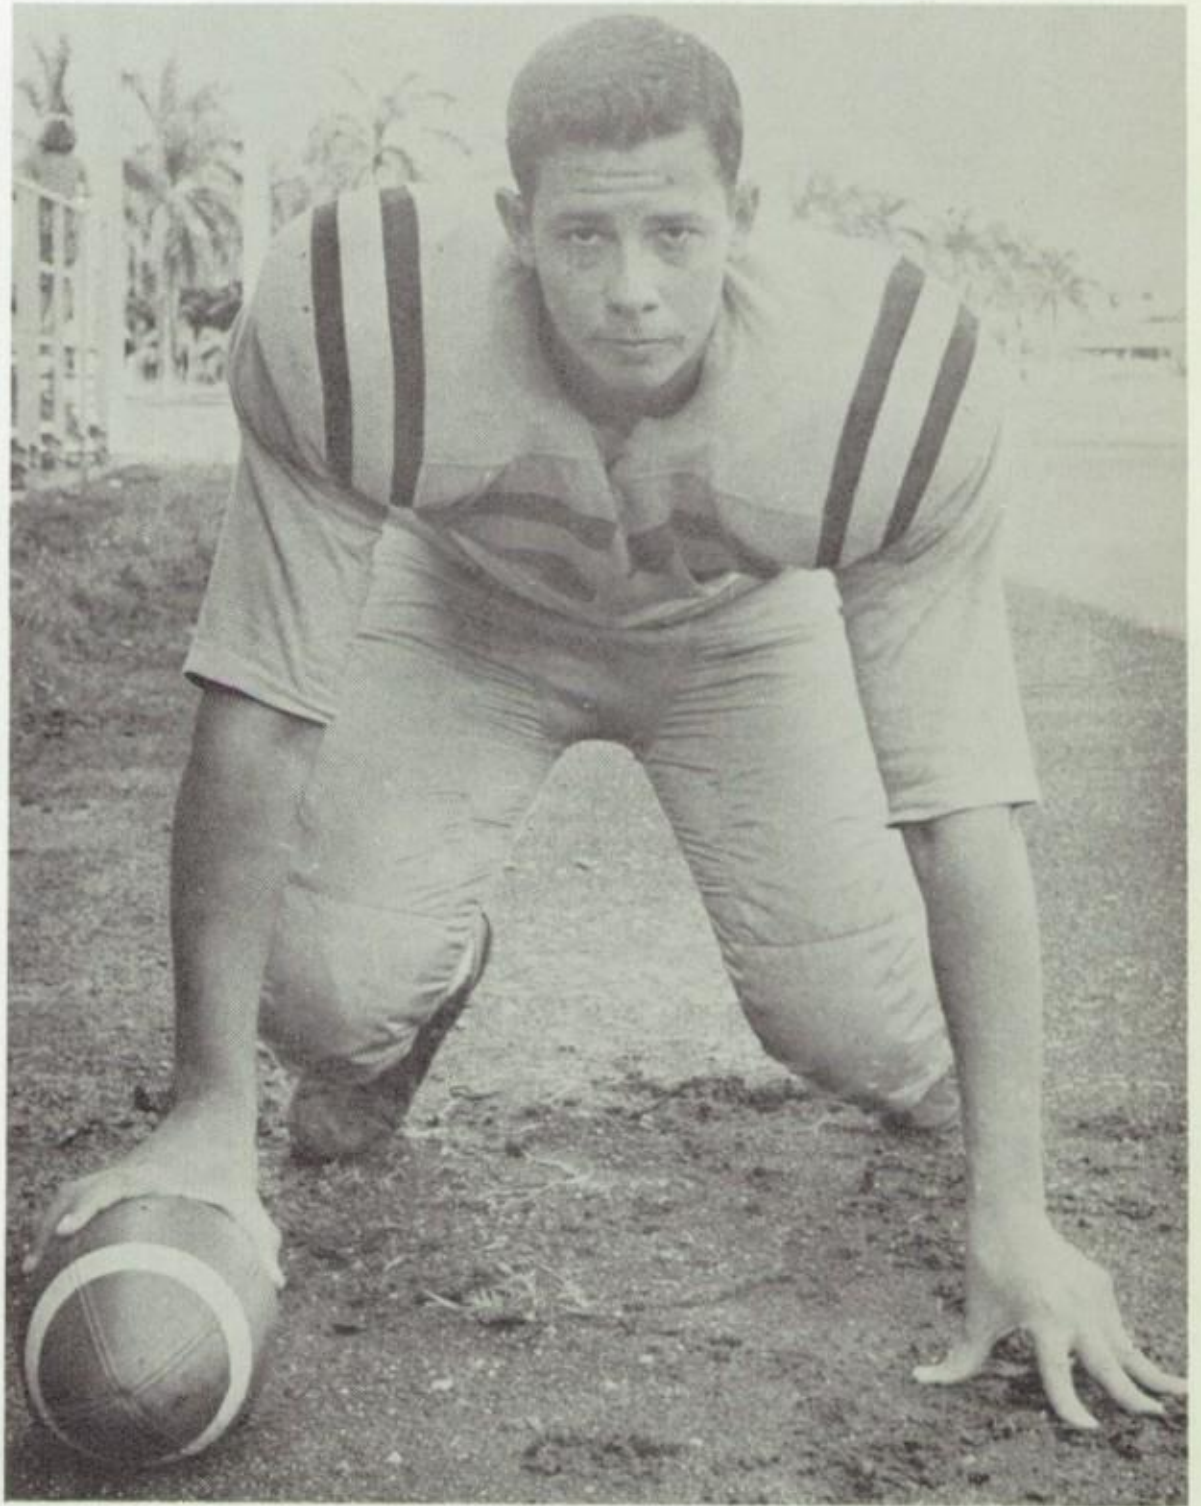

Elected as Co-Captain to his own Cristobal High School team was only one of the many honors that Jimmy had during the 1959 football season. For his outstanding play and team work during the football season, Jimmy was selected as a Center on the all Canal Zone Inter-scholastic Football team. The honors were not to stop here, as he was also selected as a Co-Captain for the Canal Zone All-Star Bowl team.

These honors truly exemplify the outstanding job that this young man contributed to his school, team, coaches, and fellow team members.

His job as center for a single-wing football team has to be considered as one of the utmost importance on the team. Playing in the mud and rain as we do here in the Canal Zone and snapping the ball back to a teammate from 4 to 15 yards behind the line of scrimmage is no easy task. Jimmy did this job so well that he did not make a bad snap all year. Jimmy's leadership on and off the field was beyond reproach at all times.

With these fine accomplishments behind him it is no wonder that Jimmy Palumbo was selected by the judges as the "Most Valuable Football Player" on the Cristobal High School Football Team for 1959-60.

Congratulations, Jimmy, for a job well done and an honor well deserved.
